

Sunit Kapur

Vice President and General Manager

Global Ignition

Tenneco Powertrain

Sunit Kapur is Vice President and General Manager, Global Ignition for Tenneco's Powertrain Division, responsible for all aspects of the ignition product line business.

Kapur has held a number of positions in operations, manufacturing, engineering and management during his 25-year tenure with Federal-Mogul Powertrain. Previously, Kapur was Vice President and Managing Director for Federal-Mogul India, where he was responsible for the company's business there. Before that, he served as head of operations for Federal-Mogul Powertrain India and was plant manager at the company's Patiala facility.

Kapur earned a mechanical engineering degree from Punjab Engineering College, Deemed University, Chandigarh, India and has gone through a general management program from INSEAD University, Paris, France.